PRESS RELEASE:

New, indispensable guide to racism and fascism in schools

Over the years, the National Front and other far right organisations have made sporadic attempts to recruit amongst the young, including in schools and other institutions of learning. October 1993 saw the election of an openly fascist councillor in Millwall, London, and rising racial tensions have been exacerbated by a number of allegedly racially motivated murders and serious assaults on black and Asian people in the South East and elsewhere, including the slaying of a white teenager by an apparently all-Asian gang, the latter being the sort of tragedy the bigoted are quick to exploit.

On October 15, InfoText Manuscripts publishes a documented exposé of one of the more sinister campaigns by race-hate fanatics to indoctrinate schoolchildren and youth. A Guide For Teachers And Educators... is published in a 25 page A4 format, breezily written, illustrated, and with over 90 footnotes, at £2.99 post free, this is simply indispensable for teachers and educators and spells out in clear, plain English the ever present danger of indoctrination by race-hate fanatics, and tells you what you can do to keep the bigots out of your school.

I enclose a cheque for £2.99 Please send me one copy of A Guide For Teachers And Educators...

(Purchase orders only on ten or more copies).

Please make out your cheque to ITMA.
